

Souls of Prophecy Gospel Choir The UK's answer to 'Sister Act' supports Help the Aged!

An alternative to Notting Hill Carnival, JK Creative Arts Management is proud to present a gospel choir mixing today's gospel with yesterday's soul creating a new sound for tomorrow!

Breathtaking commercial act 'Souls of Prophecy Gospel Choir' will host a live concert in aid of 'Help The Aged'. The charity is supported by Lionel Blair chairman of 'Stage for Age' and several other TV greats. The choir sang with Lionel Blair at their Christmas concert in 2007 and his testimonial speaks for itself.

"They were superb, vibrant, compelling, electric. The audience there absolutely loved them. They had everyone on their feet. They are, quite simply one of the best and most compulsive Gospel Choirs I have ever seen and would thoroughly recommend anyone to see them, to come along and be entertained by this talented group." - Lionel Blair

Come and witness the amazing vocal dynamics of this commercial choir that evokes multiculturalism with singers hailing from different cultural heritages, religions, racial and ethnic backgrounds, age groups and sexualities.

The choir's ethos and vision is to promote community cohesion. By travelling to festivals and cultural events around the UK and abroad, Souls of Prophecy brings understanding and awareness to the community through music concerts and interactive workshops.

With Souls of Prophecy you are in for a performance that will take you on a journey where you'll be moved by some of your favourite songs from the rock, pop, and classic Motown era re-imagined with an innovative gospel edge that appeals to a universal audience.

Souls of Prophecy have wowed audiences in weddings and corporate events in the UK and abroad for over three years and have performed for clients such as British Gas, Asda and The Thistle Hotel amongst many others. After a successful performance on the Women's Stage at London Pride 2008 and with a reputation for 'setting the tone at weddings' Souls of Prophecy welcome bookings for weddings and civil partnership ceremonies, corporate events, launch events and festivals.
